Webinar on Assistance Opportunities for Small Businesses in the Chathams, Madison, and Morris Township to be held on Tuesday, April 28, at 5 PM

Please join the Chatham Borough Economic Development Advisory Committee (EDAC) on Tuesday, April 28, at 5 pm for an informational webinar on federal and state assistance programs for small businesses during the COVID-19 public health emergency. Elizabeth Limbrick and John Costello of the New Jersey Economic Development Authority (NJEDA) will be available to answer questions on state funding opportunities, and Rana Shanawani of the Chatham-based Women’s Center for Entrepreneurship will be similarly available to respond to queries regarding federally sponsored assistance programs. In addition, Meghan Hunscher from the Morris County Chamber of Commerce will provide insight on the present need for such assistance in the municipalities of Chatham Borough, Chatham Township, Madison, and Morris Township.

The format will be a short presentation by each panelist followed by a Q&A session. To join the Zoom webinar on Tuesday, April 28, at 5 pm simply click on the following link:

https://us02web.zoom.us/j/86393615006

The longer this crisis continues, the more vital up-to-date information regarding available assistance becomes. Our mission is to help you in this regard. We look forward to having you join us on Tuesday.

- Chatham Borough Economic Development Advisory Committee