DISCUSSION ITEMS

Historical Markers – Ms. Susan Allen, 167 Fairmount Avenue, curator for the Chatham Historical Society, came before the Borough Council to ask for approval on the placement of three historical markers in the Borough. The first historic marker, "Chatham Historic District," notes that the area was once the scene of Washington's headquarters and the massing of Continental troops prior to their march on Yorktown in 1781. Ms. Allen suggested two proposed locations along Main Street and mentioned that her preference would be to install the historic marker at Bicentennial Rotary Park on Main Street. The Mayor and Council approved the placement and installation of this historic marker at Bicentennial Rotary Park.

Ms. Allen stated that the second historic marker, "Bonnell Town," refers to the Commerce Street area along the Passaic River where homes and mills once stood and was the site where soldiers under the command of General George Washington in 1780 marched from Morristown to check the advancing enemy beyond Short Hills. Ms. Allen reported that the "Bonnell Town" historic marker has been freshly painted and refurbished and suggested that it be installed at the corner of Commerce Street and Watchung Avenue, which the Mayor and Council also approved upon discussion.

Ms. Allen then discussed the third historic marker, "Days Bridge," which she reported originally belonged to the City of Summit and was removed when the road to the Short Hills Mall was built. The historic marker was then installed at the Chatham Water Works facility. The marker notes that a part of Washington's army crossed the Passaic River at Day's Bridge where they marched through Chatham in 1780 on their way to fight the British at the Battle of Springfield. Ms. Allen suggested that this historic marker be placed somewhere along Main Street. Mayor Harris further suggested the placement on the eastbound side of Main Street near 1 Main Street. Ms. Allen will meet with the Department of Public Works to determine the best location in the vicinity of 1 Main Street.

Ms. Allen further reported that another historic marker, "Settled by John Day," is in need of refurbishing, but once it is painted she suggested that the marker should be posted along Main Street in the vicinity of Kings Supermarket.

Lastly, Ms. Allen spoke about a historic marker commissioned by the Daughters of the American Revolution ("DAR") sometime in the 1930's, which commemorated the day General George Washington took command of the Continental troops. She mentioned that the DAR suggested placing the historic marker near an elm tree and inquired if the rededication of the historic marker could be planned for Arbor Day. Mayor Harris recommended that Susan Allen contact the Shade Tree Commission to coordinate a rededication event on Arbor Day.

Memorial Plaque – Mayor Harris mentioned that discussion of this matter will be rescheduled to a future date.

Mayor Harris proceeded with Public Comments.
